Designer Dictionary

n, 1. Keihauer’s celebrated combination of industry lingo and iconography. 2. a series of beautiful linen screen-printed throw pillows.
Designer Dictionary Pillows create fresh opportunities for joy and interaction: one-of-a-kind illustrations printed on down-stuffed linen, and corresponding definitions printed on silk ribbon, cornered on the back.
Throw pillows are the easiest way to make any lounge space feel cozy and at home. Take a contract sofa or chair, toss a pillow on it to make it instantly inviting.
Vocabulary
Elements
C.A.D.
Space Multitasking
Architect Collaboration
Black Glazing
Client
The Net / The Web
Designer
Collaboration
vt, 1. two or more designers working together on a specific project. 2. to work with a client who has multiple personalities. 3. a group of employees gathered together on Friday nights with beers.

Collaboration
vt, 1. two or more designers working together on a specific project. 2. to work with a client who has multiple personalities. 3. a group of employees gathered together on Friday nights with beers.

 Vocabulary
n, 1. words (to most people). 2. shapes, colors, and textures (to designers).

Elements
n, 1. any of the 103 things on the periodic table. 2. any of two or three things on the coffee table i.e. Martha Sturdy tray, Georg Jensen bloom bowl, Ansel Adams ‘400 Photographs’.

Elements
n, 1. any of the 103 things on the periodic table. 2. any of two or three things on the coffee table i.e. Martha Sturdy tray, Georg Jensen bloom bowl, Ansel Adams ‘400 Photographs’.

Glazing
n, often called windows. adj, what happens to your eyes during slide presentations just after lunch. vt, what the Zamboni does to the ice between periods.

Glazing
n, often called windows. adj, what happens to your eyes during slide presentations just after lunch. vt, what the Zamboni does to the ice between periods.

C.A.D.
 n, 1. a computer aided design. 2. person of objectionable behavior. 3. objectionable computer aided behavior. See also: CAD/CAN CAD/CAN’T

C.A.D.
 n, 1. a computer aided design. 2. person of objectionable behavior. 3. objectionable computer aided behavior. See also: CAD/CAN CAD/CAN’T

Black
 n, 1. a designer’s color – just ahead of onyx, slate, ebony, coal and matte black. 2. what the really good – bad guys wear. 3. the color of the computer screen at the end of the day.

Black
 n, 1. a designer’s color – just ahead of onyx, slate, ebony, coal and matte black. 2. what the really good – bad guys wear. 3. the color of the computer screen at the end of the day.
Multitasking
vt, 1. something you say you are doing when you are caught texting in a meeting. 2. drinking a beer and playing a video game while you are on a conference call with a client. 3. to some, combining two actions at the same time i.e. walking and chewing gum.

Space
n, 1. area surrounded by four walls, room. 2. a designer’s battleground. 3. the final frontier.

Multitasking
vt, 1. something you say you are doing when you are caught texting in a meeting. 2. drinking a beer and playing a video game while you are on a conference call with a client. 3. to some, combining two actions at the same time i.e. walking and chewing gum.

Architect
n, 1. a heroic individual concerned with building significant cultural contributions. 2. a round-bespectacled individual who played with blocks once too often as a child (and as an adult, will often tote around a roll of yellow-trace as a security blanket.)

Client
n, 1. the foundation from which all life flows. 2. the most benevolent, wonderful, intelligent, and confused. 3. person with the quarters for the coin-box of the ‘magic fingers’ vibrating bed of design.

The Net / The Web
n, multiple fictional and non-fictional worlds that exist simultaneously in one platform.

Designer
n, 1. an artist who draws conclusions. 2. a problem solver or a problem creator, depending on who you talk to.