A charming elevated floor cushion that allows the casual meeting to stay casual
Research shows that sitting with the hips above the knees restores gravitational equilibrium and spinal curves, and provides longer sitting comfort.
Lo accommodates this position by fitting the cushion into a wire base that provides a slight angle.
Lo Features

Cushion
A structural inner form is surrounded with blend-down filling.
Can be upholstered in any Keihlauer textile or leather, as well as COM/COL

Wire base
Available in any standard Keihlauer powder coat colours, or in polished chrome.