Keilhauer & Momentum Group Launch New Textile Card

Introducing a new collection of best-selling patterns and colors at competitive price points

March 14, 2019 (Toronto) - Announced today, Keilhauer and Momentum Group have launched a new textile card, offering a selection of 12 best-selling patterns in an array of color options.

New pattern and color options were selected to provide design professionals with a refreshed offering of upholstery lines that are current and easily adaptable to any environment.

Competitive pricing, proven performance and sustainably sourced materials, the reinvigorated selection of textiles are affordable, made-to-last and incorporate recycled content and low impact materials.

All Momentum fabrics are made with recycled or natural fibers, and are free of PVC and other harmful chemicals. The fabrics are GREENGUARD certified, meaning the materials have been tested and scientifically proven to have low chemical emissions.

“At Keilhauer, we pride ourselves in partnering with like-minded companies that are committed to producing sustainable products, made with people and the environment in mind,” said Josephine Abate, Sustainability Officer, Keilhauer. “That’s why we’ve partnered with Momentum Group to offer our customers a selection of textiles that are low impact, and contribute to the improvement of indoor air quality in the environments in which our products are used.”
