Keihauer Debuts Four New Textiles That Offer Style and Comfort for the Soft Contract Setting

Allegra, Lavoro, Merkat and Town offer a fresh selection of soft texture, subtle patterns and rich hues

May 3, 2019 (Toronto) – Keihauer has launched a fresh new collection of textiles, inspired by current and contemporary design trends. Allegra, Lavoro, Merkat and Town draw on modern style, while subtle design techniques found in the intimate atmosphere of our homes add a sense of comfort and invitation.

ALLEGRA

Allegra is a subtle textile woven with a durable yet delicate structure. The three yarns used to create the weaving pattern produce a vibrant freckled surface that brings a sense of joyfulness and cheer to any space.

Allegra’s delicate color palette consists of 13 sophisticated hues that create a sense of harmony. It’s made of 100% recycled polyester, and is manufactured with minimal waste in mind to support Keihauer’s sustainability mandate. Allegra is made to last with heavy-duty abrasion resistance surpassing 100,000 double rubs.

LAVORO

Lavoro is a beautifully Italian-crafted textile with a natural, contemporary look. Comprised of 100% Trevira CS, the fabric exudes comfort and softness while maintaining a high level of durability. Contrasting hues and a unique weaving technique create a subtle 3D effect in the pattern of the fabric.

Lavoro is available in 11 colors from bright pops of orange that can lighten up any space, to softer shades of grey that create a more subtle look.

MERKAT

Merkat is designed to awaken your senses, drawing inspiration from the hues, atmosphere, and textures of a Turkish bazaar. Rich tones, chromatic color and detailed texture add dimension and exotic sensation to this fabric.

The Merkat color palette consists of 15 beautiful colors ranging from deeply saturated blues, greens and pinks to sophisticated neutrals. Merkat is made of 90%, post-consumer polyester and 10% virgin polyester, with an acrylic backing. The fabric has excellent class five colorfastness and heavy duty abrasion resistance, surpassing 100,000 double rubs.
